

PETER SULLIVAN

Peter Sullivan was born and raised in Sydney. Peter has always had a passion for outstanding food and service. He fulfilled his childhood dream of owning his own restaurant and has been working in the restaurant industry for over twenty years.

In 1988 Peter commenced as a waiter/manager at La Belle Helene Restaurant in Roseville NSW. It was here that Peter met Matthew Moran and a strong friendship developed. Shortly after, combining their passion and commitment to the industry they began their business partnership.

In 1991 Peter, along with his business partner Matthew Moran, launched their first restaurant –The Paddington Inn Bistro. This successful partnership led them to open their second restaurant Moran's Restaurant and Café in 1995 which was also well received on the Sydney food scene.

December 1999 saw Peter and Matthew open the doors to ARIA Restaurant. Located in one of the most enviable positions in Sydney at No. 1 Macquarie Street, East Circular Quay, ARIA overlooks the Sydney Opera House and Sydney's spectacular harbour. ARIA has been awarded two coveted Chef's Hats by the Sydney Morning Herald Good Food Guide in 2001, 2002, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2008.

"Service at Aria is indulgent but discreet under the watchful eye of Peter Sullivan, floor staff are informed and smoothly professional"

Australian Gourmet Traveller Restaurant Reviewer, Guy Griffin

Peter's philosophy is to deliver warm, friendly and professional service. This, matched with ARIA's modern Australian menu, award winning wine list and spectacular view creates the ultimate Sydney dining experience.
